A word to the reader

Beloved, when you or someone you love is facing illness, pain, or uncertainty, the Word of God can be a place of hope and strength. Scripture invites us to bring our needs before the Lord, remember His compassion, and trust Him in every season.

This little book brings together healing Scriptures, brief reflections, and prayers. Read the passages slowly. Speak them aloud if you wish, meditate on them, and bring your own words and questions to God. You can pray for yourself or for someone you love.

Beloved, I believe in the power of prayer and in the healing compassion of Jesus Christ. As you read these Scriptures and pray, I encourage you to seek the medical care you need and follow the guidance of qualified health professionals. God can strengthen and comfort us through prayer and through the care we receive from others. If healing seems delayed, please know that you are loved and are not being judged for your faith. You do not have to walk through sickness alone.

All Scripture quotations are from the King James Version (KJV). Some passages were addressed to particular people or communities. Read them in their wider biblical context as you reflect and pray.

How to use this book

Choose a passage. Read it in your Bible and reflect on its context. Then pray, asking God for healing, wisdom, strength, and peace. Return to the words whenever you need encouragement, and invite trusted believers to pray with you.

God is with you

Isaiah 41:10 (KJV)

Fear thou not; for I am with thee: be not dismayed; for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness.

God's presence is a source of courage when we feel vulnerable. We can bring our fears to Him and ask for strength for today.

Prayer Father, thank You that You are with me. Strengthen me when I feel weak, help me when I am afraid, and uphold me with Your hand. Amen.

Attend to the Word

Proverbs 4:20–22 (KJV)

My son, attend to my words; incline thine ear unto my sayings. Let them not depart from thine eyes; keep them in the midst of thine heart. For they are life unto those that find them, and health to all their flesh.

This passage calls us to listen attentively to wisdom and keep it close. Make space to hear Scripture and let its truth guide your heart.

Prayer Lord, help me to listen to Your Word and keep it in my heart. Let Your wisdom guide me and bring life and strength to my days. Amen.

The Lord hears our cry

Psalm 30:2 (KJV)

O LORD my God, I cried unto thee, and thou hast healed me.

The psalmist remembers crying out and experiencing God's healing. His testimony encourages us to bring our own needs honestly before the Lord.

Prayer Lord my God, I cry out to You today. Please touch me with Your healing, and give me grace and strength as I trust You. Amen.

Healing for the brokenhearted

Psalm 147:3 (KJV)

He healeth the broken in heart, and bindeth up their wounds.

God cares about the wounds we cannot see as well as those we can. Bring Him your grief, disappointment, and pain, and receive support from people you trust.

Prayer Father, You see every wound in my heart. Comfort me, help me to receive care, and lead me toward healing and peace. Amen.

A prayer for healing

Jeremiah 17:14 (KJV)

Heal me, O LORD, and I shall be healed; save me, and I shall be saved: for thou art my praise.

Jeremiah's words give us a simple prayer when we cannot find many words of our own. We can ask God for healing and place our hope in Him.

Prayer Heal me, O Lord, and strengthen me. Be near to me today, and let praise rise from my heart even as I wait on You. Amen.

Renewed strength

Isaiah 40:31 (KJV)

But they that wait upon the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint.

Waiting can be difficult, especially when your body or heart is tired. Bring your weariness to God and ask Him to renew you one day at a time.

Prayer Lord, renew my strength. When I feel weary, help me to rest in You and give me grace for the steps before me. Amen.

Jesus welcomes those who come

Matthew 11:28 (KJV)

Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

Jesus invites the weary to come to Him. You do not need to hide your burdens or find perfect words before you pray.

Prayer Jesus, I come to You with my burdens. Give me rest, hold me close, and teach me to trust Your care. Amen.

The compassion of Jesus

Matthew 14:14 (KJV)

And Jesus went forth, and saw a great multitude, and was moved with compassion toward them, and he healed their sick.

As you read the Gospel accounts of healing, notice the compassion of Jesus toward people in need. Bring your needs to Him, trusting that He sees you.

Prayer Jesus, thank You for Your compassion. I bring my need before You and ask for Your healing touch, comfort, and guidance. Amen.

Christ bore our sins

1 Peter 2:24 (KJV)

Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed.

Peter points believers to Christ's suffering and calls them to live in righteousness. In every season, we can look to Jesus, whose sacrifice reveals His love for us.

Prayer Lord Jesus, thank You for giving Yourself for us. Draw me close to You, strengthen my faith, and guide me in Your ways. Amen.

Pray together

James 5:14–15 (KJV)

Is any sick among you? let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord: And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him.

James encourages those who are sick to call on the church's elders for prayer. You do not have to face illness alone. Reach out to a trusted pastor or prayer partner.

Prayer Father, thank You for the body of Christ. Surround me with loving people who will pray with me, encourage me, and walk with me. Amen.

Bring every concern to God

Philippians 4:6–7 (KJV)

Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

You can bring the practical details of your situation to God: appointments, decisions, finances, and the needs of your family. Ask for His peace as you make your requests.

Prayer Father, I bring every concern to You. Give me wisdom for the decisions ahead and guard my heart and mind with Your peace. Amen.

God hears us

1 John 5:14 (KJV)

And this is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us.

Prayer is a conversation with the God who hears us. Come with confidence, humility, and trust, placing both your requests and your life in His hands.

Prayer Father, thank You for hearing me. I ask for healing and trust You to lead me with wisdom and love. Let Your will be done in my life. Amen.

Praying with someone who is sick

If you are a family member, friend, pastor, or volunteer, your presence can be a source of comfort. Ask the person if they would like you to pray with them, and listen to what they want to share.

- Ask what they would like prayer for, and respect their wishes.
- Read a short Scripture slowly. If helpful, discuss it in a language the person understands.
- Pray simply and compassionately. Make room for the person to pray or remain quiet.
- Offer practical help when you can, such as arranging transport, sharing a meal, or contacting family.
- Encourage the person to seek appropriate medical care and follow the guidance of qualified health professionals. Help them access care when needed.
- Continue to visit, listen, and pray. Protect the person's privacy, and ask permission before sharing their story or testimony.

If someone is seriously ill, seek medical help promptly. Never tell a person to stop prescribed treatment because they have been prayed for. A person who is still sick deserves love and care, never blame.

A prayer for someone you love

Heavenly Father, I bring my loved one before You. You know their name, their pain, and every need they are carrying. Please touch them with Your healing power. Give wisdom to those caring for them, strength to their family, and peace in the midst of uncertainty. Let them know that they are seen, loved, and never alone. In the name of Jesus, amen.

An invitation to know Jesus

God loves you, and you can come to Him just as you are. The good news is that Jesus Christ died for our sins and rose again. Through Him, we are invited to receive forgiveness and new life. If you would like to place your trust in Jesus, you can speak to Him in your own words. You may use this prayer:

A Sinner's Prayer to Receive Jesus as Savior

Dear Heavenly Father, I come to You in the name of Jesus.

Your Word says, "... him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out" (John 6:37). So I know You won't cast me out, but You take me in, and I thank You for it.

You said in Your Word, "Whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved" (Romans 10:13). I am calling on Your name, so I know You have saved me now.

You also said, "if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation" (Romans 10:9–10).

I believe in my heart Jesus Christ is the Son of God. I believe that He was raised from the dead for my justification. And I confess Him now as my Lord.

Because Your Word says, "... with the heart man believeth unto righteousness ..." and I do believe with my heart, I have now become the righteousness of God in Christ (2 Corinthians 5:21). And I am saved! Thank You, Lord!
